

Rest in Peace Robbie.

We were a happy little family, until twenty years ago today
But our world has been torn asunder, since that unnecessary day
Family and friends did all that they could, to help us with our grief
But nothing can fill the emptiness, nor ease the heartache that's beyond belief.

The house is so quiet without you Rob, Justin and Ian are lonely
How many times have we asked why, how many times said if only?
There was so much we wanted to tell you, so much we wanted to do
Now all we have left is your photograph and our wonderful memories of you.

You were such a special little boy, so caring and so full of fun
We love you still, we always will, sleep well our darling son.

The Powell family.
