

Lisa qualified as a solicitor in 1993 and in 2001 successfully completed her training to become an Accredited Mediator with Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution (CEDR).

Whilst in private practice Lisa specialised in clinical negligence claims and was a member of the Law Society Clinical Negligence Accreditation Scheme; she has considerable experience of dealing with complex, high value claims, including cerebral palsy cases and multiparty action work.

Lisa has been with AvMA since March 2009 during which time she was instrumental in setting up AvMA's very successful pro bono inquest scheme. She has also been involved in assisting families affected by events at Stafford Hospital including providing representation at the Independent Review of Medical Records. Lisa has recently secured a second inquest into the death of one of the patients treated at Stafford Hospital.

Lisa was appointed Director of Medical and Legal Services in September 2013 and continues as one of the assessors on AvMA's referral panel.
