

Forthcoming Conferences and Events

Medico-Legal Issues in Neurosurgery and Neurological Disease 28 February 2018, 7 Bedford Row, London

Complications from neurosurgery and neurological disease are common, causing major functional damage and having a seriously detrimental impact on quality of life. At this essential conference, leading experts will highlight the medico-legal issues involved in neurosurgery and neurological disease, including spinal surgery, stroke medicine, cranial surgery, neuroradiology and issues arising in neuro-intensive care. Quantum in neurosurgery and neurological disease will also be covered.

This conference is for clinical negligence solicitors and barristers at all levels, as well as healthcare professionals involved in clinical governance and patient safety.

Old Square Chambers & AvMA Clinical Negligence seminar Evening of 28 February 2018, Malmaison Hotel, Newcastle-upon-Tyne

This seminar on the evening of 28 February at Malmaison in Newcastle-upon-Tyne is a joint collaboration between Old Square Chambers & AvMA to mark AvMA's 35th anniversary. Attendees will be treated to a broad range of topics with an emphasis upon current issues in the clinical law field from both legal and medical speakers.

Talks will range from consideration of the medico-legal issues in the management of maternal medicine disorders in pregnancy, through to delayed cancer diagnosis and the role of article 2 inquests in the healthcare setting. There will be plenty of opportunity to ask questions and to develop one's knowledge in these complex but fascinating areas of practise. The seminar will take place from 17:30-19:30 and will be immediately followed by drinks and networking. All registration fees will go to AvMA's charitable work in our 35th year.

Cerebral Palsy and Brain Injury Cases – Ensuring you do the best for your client

8 March 2018, Doubletree by Hilton

This popular AvMA conference returns to Bristol on 8th March and will discuss and analyse the key areas currently under the spotlight in Cerebral Palsy and Brain Injury Cases so that lawyers are aware of the challenges required to best represent their clients. Determining causation, neonatal risk factors and intrapartum fetal distress and surveillance focusing on CTGs will be covered by leading medical experts.

Guidance will also be provided on alternative and augmentative communication and assistive technology for children with brain damage, as well as looking at case management, tactical budgeting and the current issues in CP and brain injury claims.

Forthcoming Conferences and Events

Medico-Legal Issues in Oncology

22 March 2018, Slater & Gordon Solicitors, Manchester

This vital course will provide in-depth knowledge and understanding of Oncology in a medico-legal context relevant to your case load. The day will feature presentations from leading experts on breast surgery; medical treatment of breast tumours; abdominal tumours focusing on cancer of the colon; surgical treatment of urological tumours focusing on prostate cancer; and an orthopaedic perspective on oncology. Counsel will also examine causation issues arising in cancer claims.

AvMA Annual Charity Golf Day

28 June 2018, Singing Hills Golf Course, West Sussex

The fourteenth AvMA Charity Golf Day will take place on Thursday 28 June 2018 at a new course – the beautiful Singing Hills Golf Course in Albourne, West Sussex (www.singinghillsgolfcourse.co.uk), set in an area of outstanding natural beauty with the South Downs as the backdrop. The Welcome Event for the Annual Clinical Negligence Conference will take place later that evening at the Hilton Brighton Metropole (25 minutes' drive away), so the Golf Day offers the perfect start to the essential event for clinical negligence specialists. We will be playing Stableford Rules in teams of four and you are invited to either enter your own team or we will be happy to form a team for you with other individuals.

The cost is only £98 + VAT per golfer, which includes breakfast rolls on arrival, 18 holes of golf and a buffet and prize-giving at the end of the day. All profits go directly to AvMA's charitable work. Booking will open in early 2018.
