

The 2019 Partners in Costs Magazine Awards

Sponsored by Daniel Lewis Law, in Association with AvMA

Send in your applications now!

Eligibility Criteria:

- This award is open to individuals representing Claimants in Clinical Negligence cases.
- Entrants must have qualified after June 2014

How do I apply?

Send your CV along with a personal statement (limited to 2 x A4 pages) to the email address below. Please clearly state which award you are applying for.

Your personal statement should detail the following:

- Why you believe that you should win.
- The impact that you have made on your area of law.
- Recognition from others for achievements along with evidence of such
- Any charitable work that you have undertaken/funds raised
- Anything else that you believe should be taken into consideration that is not mentioned above.

How will my application be Judged?

Applications will be reviewed by our panel of judges— HHJ Richard Roberts QC, Professor Dominic Regan of Dominic Regan Training Ltd, Lisa O'Dwyer, Medico-Legal Services Director at AvMA, Reuben Glynn of Partners in Costs, Daniel Lewis of Daniel Lewis Law, Denzil Lush, former Senior Judge of the Court of Protection.

How will the winner be announced?

The winner will be announced by our sponsor Daniel Lewis at AvMA's 31st Annual Clinical Negligence Conference the Mid-Conference Dinner at AvMA's 31st Annual Clinical Negligence Conference on Friday, 28th June.

What could I win?

The winner will receive a fabulous weekend away for two in Paris (worth £500)

Please direct all queries and applications to kerry.ridley@pic.legal